Re : The Days of Ukrainian Culture in Sweden

Date: 28 Nov 1969

SX-16397

1. This is the first report on the "Days of Culture of Ukrainian SSR"in Sweden as arranged from 8 - 28 Nov 1969 under auspices of "The Union (Alliance) of Societies "Sweden-Soviet Union".

The "Festival" was opened on Nov 8,1969 in UMAGA and its program included beside exhibition of books, art, photography etc also concerts of soloists of Kiev and Odessa Opera, Kiev Philharmonic Orchestra, and performances of the Rapsodiya Ensemble from Luhansk and female Bandurists—"Trio from Kiev.

The official Delegation of Ukr SSR had about 20 people and was headed by MMTRUK, Vira, chairman of the Ukrainian Soviety for Cultural Contacts with Foreign Contries. Enclosed is the program of artistic performances in various cities.

SSR at the "Days of Culture of Ukrainan SSR" in Sweden 8-28 Nov 1969.

2. On 11 and 17 Nov 1969 our Sources contacted members of the Soviet Ukrainian group in Stockholm. Following is the gist of those contacts. Nono dib.ca.1737

a NOYKO, Edvard of Kiev, leader of the artistic group and representative of Brade Unions. Ukrainian, approx. 40 years old, married, has a 6 year old son, claims to be on friendly terms with Robert KLAVIN (who on 9 Nov 1969 just celebrated his 355 25th anniversary with the Kiev Ballet), and Danylo FEDORIACHENKO. Also knows personally Valentina KALINOVSKA. Among writers and poets claims to know very Lina KOSTENKO and Vitali KOROTYCH.

In 1968 LOYKO went to CSSR (Svydnyk, Presov, Prague) as member of Soviet Ukrainian Delegation to the Decade of Ukrainian Song and Interest of the Svydnyk. Had been also to France in recent years.

Has a private dacha near Kiev.

According to LOYKO 2 nothing is going to happen to Ivan Dziika" IPIAR DIPIA
though he himself cannot understand how the author living in the Draine
"could have written such a book" (the implication was that this was a bad book).

Classification: 74 - 1240x: 8 Fold:

Dziuba was having now "some tragedy" in his family. Loyko refused to specify what kind of but his remark indicated that this was something personal.

He claimed to have read Dziuba's "Internationalism or Russification" published by Suchansmist, also other bookslike "60 Poets of the Sixtees". and the magazine Suchasnist itself. He also wanted to knwo what soviet poets and writers Suchassist was planning to publish in the future. In his view it would be better if Suchasnist-editors would first go to Ukraine and talk to young authors: there before deciding on publishing them.

On the whole, LOYKO and others were very generous in extending their invitations to visit Ukraine. One of our sources was assured he will be given his villa (dacha) at his disposal while in Ukraine.

According to LOYKU, KURUTICH Vitali plays an important rele on the Board of the Union of Writers of Ukraine.

Loyko was given literature published abroad. From one Source he received the following publications: Suchasnist # 10/1969, Reprints from Suchasnist of Sherekh, Oliynyk, De Gaullism", Pogruzhalsky Trial; books - "Do Khvyli", and " The KGB TRial of Ukrainian Lawyers".

b/ OLEYNIKOVA. Valentina of Odessa Opera asked herself for "60 Poets of the Sixtees" and was given it. She avoided .however, political and other"controversial" topics. She knows very well Kalinovska Valentina who recently has borne a daughter.

c/ On MOKRENKO, Anatoli; and TUFTINA, Galina of Kiev Opera, PARKHOMENKO, Valentina of Bandurists Trio, and others - there is actually nothing of interest to report except for the literature they were given. Thus , MOKRENKO received "Hnizdovsky", each of the three Rapsodiya -musicians got "Symonenko Vasyl". Final data on distribution of books will follow later.

3. FIMITKUK. Vira was mostly busy with official receptions and meetings. In talks with our Sources she asked them and particularly editors of Suchasnist to visit Ukraine. She wanted to have Suchasnist (and was given # 10/1969) and claimed she was reading this magazine " all the time".
